

BLUFF
2008
HOLIDAY
GIFT GUIDE

'Tis the season for giving, giving, and more giving. Unless of course, you're like us and would much rather be on the receiving end of the gift-giving ritual. Since we know many of you have spent most of your time playing poker and reading BLUFF, we scoured near and far for the coolest things on the planet for you to add you to your holiday list. For those of you not on the naughty list, enjoy. Oh, and for any of you looking to give back to the fine people who bring you BLUFF every month, anything on this list will do. Our address is listed on page ten.

1. Double Agent Headphones

You've seen the likes of Daniel Negreanu and Lacey Jones rocking these sweet headphones. They're a must-have for anybody who's tired of listening to chips being shuffled or Phil Hellmuth calling you a donkey.

4. Clints Cigars Gift Box

Although most poker rooms don't allow smoking, that doesn't mean you can't light one up at home or at the bar after a big winning session. With this holiday special, you'll be fully stocked with one hundred fresh Clints Cigars, packaged nicely in a beautifully handcrafted box made especially for Clints.

5. JAQK Cellars Wine

Tired of drinking the same old beer at your home games? Well, JAQK Cellars has just released eight distinctive limited production wines inspired by the jack, ace, queen and king in a deck of cards. A wonderful gift for any poker player or wine connoisseur, this wine is a perfect addition to any holiday list.

12. Alfred Dunhill Cufflinks

Not every piece of poker jewelry has to be tacky as all hell. Alfred Dunhill is known for quality products and these sterling silver, rhodium-plated poker chip cufflinks are certainly going to make you look like a baller. Just don't rock 'em with your tacky dress shirts.

$265/pair

14. Online Poker Remote Control

If you're playing as much online poker as we know you're playing then this bad boy is just for you. Works with every online poker room and lets you make all the checks, calls, raises, and folds with the push of a button. Oh, and according to the website, it "works between walls," which means you'll be able to make your plays from the throne.

$89.99

15. Gold Link World Poker Champion Bracelet

We're going to be brutally honest with you for just a few seconds here. It's highly unlikely you're going to win the WSOP Main Event bracelet. Ever. That doesn't stop the significant other in your life from buying you this $30 knock-off to show you that you're her world champion. Who knows, maybe you'll fool the guys at the local casino too.

$29.99

17. World Poker Tour Pinball Machine

What could be more awesome than listening to Mike Sexton and Vince Van Patten call the action while you prove you're a pinball wizard? No game room would be complete without the World Poker Tour pinball machine from Stern Pinball. Oh, and if you suffer a bad beat, former hostess Courtney Friel's voice will surely sooth you.

$4,500

18. Zenview Powerscape Ultra HD Multi-Screen Display

So you're a big fan of Hevad "Rain" Khan and have seen the YouTube video of him playing 26 sit-n-goes at once. But you've been thinking to yourself, how can I play that many tables without any overlap? Well, the Multi Screen Display from Zenview is right up your alley. With 110 inches of display space and 2560x1600 resolution, it's exactly what you need. There's enough room for thirty tables and a little bit of "research" on the side monitor.

$4,799
