CHARMED SAUVIGNON BLANC 2007 CALIFORNIA

VINEYARD:

Lake County is becoming known for quality Sauvignon Blanc. The grapes attain ripeness early in the season and result in wines overflowing with citrus and floral characteristics reminiscent of New Zealand Sauvignon Blancs. The Napa Valley grapes lend roundness, structure and length.

AROMAS:

Grapefruit, juniper berry, fruit cocktail, green apple.

TASTE:

Initially crisp and fruity giving way to a balanced and round evolution with nice mid-palate and a mouth-watering finish.

WINEMAKING:

Hand Harvested / Whole cluster pressed / 100% Stainless steel fermented / 40% aged in barrels for 6 months / No malolactic fermentation.
